this volume examines the relationship between law and sacrifice as a crucial nexus for theorizing the dynamics of creation destruction transcendence and violence within the philosophical and legal discourse of western society at a time of populist political unrest what philosophical and theoretical resources are available for conceptualizing the discontent that seems to emanate from practically every sphere of society what narrative strategies have been employed within literary theological philosophical and legal discourse to tame or mystify human violence engaging with the work of preeminent theorists of sacrifice such as georges bataille rené girard giorgio agamben and jacques derrida this collection examines from an interdisciplinary perspective the sacrificial logic that characterizes the cultural and political dynamics of law in society the book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of legal theory and philosophy jukes s well known work about the tabernacle offerings and how they still apply to today s christian this work uses anthropological theory and field studies to investigate the social function and meaning of sacrifice all rituals including sacrifice communicate social beliefs and morality but these cannot be determined outside of a study of the social context thus there is no single explanation for sacrifice such as those advanced by rené girard or walter burkert or late 19th and early 20th century scholars the book then examines four different writings in the hebrew bible the priestly writing the deuteronomistic history ezra nehemiah and chronicles to demonstrate how different social origins result in different social meanings of sacrifice have you ever wondered about the purpose of the bloody sacrifices of oxen sheep goats and other animals in the old testament in this lucid work theologian andrew jukes presents a comprehensible explanation of these offerings wherein he clearly shows that the offerings in the old testament are types or signs of the ultimate offering that is the sacrifice of jesus christ a study of the reception history of thomas aquinas s account of eucharistic sacrifice during the sixteenth and early seventeenth
