This book was written to allow diplomats and scholars to think about foreign policy instead of pursuing the fact. In this edition, Garcia places at his disposal a great number of facts related to the conduct of Portuguese diplomacy before the independence and later Brazil to the international insertion of Brazil and to the global international relations from the discovery of the country to our days. This edition updated until 2004 incorporates the latest facts that marked Brazilian foreign policy and the international scenario at the beginning of the 21st century. estantevirtual.com
